As a regular attendee I'm always excited to network with potential partners both old and new. It's really great to see so many familiar faces here and reconnect over the years, and I was pleasantly surprised to discover some new businesses I've been interested in connecting with. The chance to meet with all these exhibitors, and to be able to attend masterclasses has been incredibly valuable both personally and professionally.

I'm always very excited to return to RBHK! I'm really amazed by the event lineup this year, especially with the various demonstrations by Industry leaders. The cocktail and coffee classes were a highlight of the show and besides the good exhibitor line-up, the reason why I attend RBHK every year.
